Bring Hassan Home Campaign: Information Event

More than Two Years in a French Prison without charge, The Extradition of an Innocent Canadian: Hassan Diab

What: 'Rubber Stamped: The Hassan Diab Story' short documentary and info session led by Hassan's well respected and tireless Canadian lawyer, Donald Bayne.

When & Where: Wed. March 8th, Unitarian Place, 206 Concession St. Doors Open at 6:40, (yummy snacks & light refreshments), event starts at 7 p.m.

Come learn about the case of Hassan Diab, a Carleton University professor who has been extradited from Canada to France where he faces the prospect of a wrongful conviction. Hassan, originally from Lebanon, has been a Canadian citizen since 1993. He has a young family in Ottawa. He is alleged to have been involved in the bombing of a synagogue in Paris in 1980 but first learned he was a suspect only in 2007. He has strongly condemned the attack and all violence and steadfastly maintains his innocence. He is being held on indefinite detention without charge on the basis of 'secret' evidence. He firmly believes it is a case of mistaken identity and has cooperated fully with authorities to try to clear his name. Hassan needs Canadians to learn about his plight and insist that his rights be upheld.

Come, spread the word, bring others. A growing number of Canadian supporters are working to address this injustice. Be a part of it!

For more info: http://www.justiceforhassandiab.org